

LOES HINSE patterns are based on the designs for her boutique in Carmel, California. Her concept reflects soft feminine shapes with simple lines that are easy to mix and match. Because of this concept, the patterns can be made in a variety of fabrics that can be used again and again. Loes' European training and years of experience working with a variety of women with different needs and lifestyles resulted in an understanding of timeless, yet modern clothing.

Description – Slight cap sleeve dress and top. Dress has dart detail center front for subtle shaping.

Suggested Fabrics – View A & B; View C & D: All drapery wovens, knits, velvets and laces.
